

End Abuse presents a

Regional Advocate Day for Training (RAD)

for domestic & sexual violence advocates + community partners

Northeastern Region Wednesday, August 28, 2019

Harbor House

720 W 5th St, Appleton, WI 54914

10:00 AM - 3:00 PM

There are five free Regional Advocate Days for Training annually. End Domestic Abuse WI plans them in collaboration with local advocates in each Wisconsin region (western, northern, northeastern, southeastern, and southern). Additionally, we host RADs specifically for advocates of color twice each year. Advocates are welcome to attend any RAD in any region, regardless of where they live and work! Find all upcoming RADs at www.endabusewi.org/events

More on Regional Training

The coalition looks at what advocates tell us they want to learn about in our annual survey, in training feedback, & in informal conversations. We consider trends & issues arising at the state & national level to make sure advocates get the information they need. At RADs, local programs showcase their work & advocates learn from each other.

Additional Details

Meals cannot be provided – plan to have breakfast before you arrive, & bring a lunch or visit a local restaurant when we break for lunch around noon. We will email registrants with more information for accessing the training, such as location details, carpooling, & parking options.

Morning Workshop | 10:15am - 12:00pm

Abuse in Later Life

Ann Laatsch from the National Clearinghouse on Abuse In Later Life (NCALL) will present on Abuse in Later Life with a focus on NE WI. Ann will address basic abuse in later life issues and provide information about NCALL as a resource.

Afternoon Workshop | 1:15pm - 2:45pm

Trauma Informed Practices

CJ Doxtater will facilitate a focused conversation on Trauma Informed Practices that are being used by attending domestic violence agencies. This includes assessment tools, policy updates, self-care techniques, and other tools and practices that agencies are using.
