

End Domestic Abuse Wisconsin presents

Identifying & Serving Human Trafficking Survivors at Domestic Abuse Programs

November 20, 2019 | 8:30am - 4:30pm
Radisson Hotel Milwaukee West
Milwaukee, WI

Different systems focus on different aspects of trafficking; one system cannot adequately address the problem, and no services are designed to meet all the needs of trafficking victims. How do domestic abuse programs fit into this picture?

We will explore these aspects of our work during this full-day, interactive training. Join Morgan Young (Office of Crime Victim Services, WI Department of Justice) and presenters from the Asha Project, Waukesha Women's Center, and UMOS Latina Resource Center. We will come together to review tools and resources, and consider real-life case scenarios of trafficking survivors who worked with Wisconsin domestic abuse programs.

Please see Selected Training & Resources on page 2, which suggests foundational information for this event.

This event is designed for advocates of DV or dual DV/SA programs. Others please contact colleenc@endabusewi.org before registering.
