

American Indians Against Abuse,
End Domestic Abuse Wisconsin &
Lac Courte Oreilles Oakwood Haven Shelter present

The Northern Training: Tribal & Rural Communities Addressing Gender-Based Violence

JULY 12 & 13, 2023

Lac Courte Oreilles Ojibwe University -
13466 W. Trepania Rd. Hayward, WI 54843

FEATURED KEYNOTE
LISA BRUNNER

SCHEDULE AT A GLANCE

Wednesday, July 12

- 8-9am | Registration & Breakfast
- 9-10am | WELCOME
- 10-11:30am | Lisa Brunner | KEYNOTE
 - Beyond the Binary of Victim/Abuser
- 11:30-12:30pm | LUNCH
- 12:30-2pm | Lisa Brunner | KEYNOTE
 - The Doctrine of Discovery: Impact on Survivors
- 2-3:30pm | WORKSHOPS
 - Rural Sexual Assault Response Teams
 - Laughter Yoga
 - Legal Advocacy & Confidentiality
- 3:30-4pm | CLOSING

Thursday, July 13

- 8-9am | Breakfast
- 9-10:15am | PANEL: Telling Our Stories
- 10:30-12pm | Addressing the Intersection of Child Welfare Response & Commercial Sexual Exploitation (CSEC) - Bonnie Clairmont Tribal Law & Policy Institute
- 12-1pm | LUNCH & CLOSING

MORE INFORMATION

Register by June 30th

Link to register - bit.ly/nt23reg

- The registration fee to attend the training is $175
- End Abuse member programs and AIAA scholarship recipients will be provided a coupon code to waive the registration fee
- Breakfast & Lunch will be included both days. Dinner is on your own.

Reserve lodging by June 19th

- A block of state rate rooms starting at $90/night can be reserved by calling:
 - Sevenwinds Lodge at 715-634-5643 or
 - Flat Creek Lodge at 877-883-1304

Apply for a scholarship by June 11th

- AIAA will offer scholarships for eligible tribal program staff of Wisconsin's 11 federally recognized tribes, to assist with travel, lodging and meals not included at the training. To be considered for a scholarship, email Denise Johnson at aiaa.denisej@gmail.com