

Please join the Metropolitan Milwaukee Fair Housing Council for:

KEEPING HOUSING FAIR: SEMINAR FOR HOUSING ADVOCATES AND PROVIDERS

Wednesday, October 14, 2026
1:30- 3:00 P.M.

Fair housing rights ensure consumers are treated fairly and equally, including in shelters and other supportive housing environments. The Metropolitan Milwaukee Fair Housing Council will provide an overview of:

- local, state, and federal protected classes,
- prohibited practices, and
- red flags of discrimination.

We will include a focus on fair housing protections for victims of domestic violence, families with children, and people with disabilities.

Register by October 7 at Keep Housing Fair 10-14

PRESENTERS

Sarah Jenkins

Sarah Jenkins, Director of Education & Policy at Metropolitan Milwaukee Fair Housing Council (MMFHC), has 11 years of experience in fair housing, public education initiatives, and policy-related work. In her role with MMFHC, Ms. Jenkins manages education and outreach activities, including the delivery of fair housing presentations and seminars, development and distribution of educational resources, and coordination with partner organizations to ensure the public is informed about fair housing rights and responsibilities.

Megan Wanke

Megan Wanke is the Senior Administrator of Program Services with MMFHC. During her 21 years with MMFHC, Ms. Wanke has assisted over 100 complainants in successfully pursuing remedies through federal, state, and local enforcement agencies, and trained more than 4,000 housing providers throughout Wisconsin on their responsibilities under federal, state, and local fair housing laws. Ms. Wanke holds an M.S. in Administrative Leadership from UW-Milwaukee.

